PRODUCT SPECIFIC TERMS

GOSILICO™ CHROMATOGRAPHY MODELING SOFTWARE – STUDENT EDITION

These Product Specific Terms (these “Terms”) contain terms and conditions that are in addition to those in the body of the Cytiva Software End User License Agreement (the “EULA”). For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms also apply to your use of the Software and if there is any conflict between the EULA and these Terms, then these Terms shall prevail.

1. Definitions

For purposes of these Terms, the following terms have the following meanings:

- 1.1 “Software” means a feature-limited version of the GoSilico Chromatography Modeling Software (also known as the “Student Edition”).

2. Student license

For the Student Edition of GoSilico Chromatpgraphy Modeling Software, Cytiva grants the Licensee a license to download, install, and use the Software in object code on one or more computers. As no fees are charged for this student license, it shall be regarded as a No-Charge Product as defined in the EULA. It further gives Licensee the right to use the Software for the number of Authorized Users stated on the Order Form. In addition to the limitations set forth in the EULA, the Licensee may only use the Software and any results produced with the Software for academic purposes, including without limitation, for non-commercial research projects and teaching activities. The use for any commercial purpose like industrial research projects is prohibited, unless prior written agreement is given by Cytiva and decided on a case-by-case basis at Cytiva’s sole discretion.

Licensee warrants and represents that Licensee is affiliated with a non-profit research institution or an institution which has degree awarding powers in the relevant territory. Should Licensee no longer hold such a status before the end of the Term, this Agreement shall automatically terminate.

4. Delivery and Installation

4.1 The Software is delivered as a download.

4.2 Licensee is responsible for installing the Software.

4.3 Cytiva may, but is not obliged to, provide updates to the Software during the Term. The Licensee is obliged to install all available updates that have been supplied by Cytiva.

5. No technical support

For avoidance of doubt, no technical support will be provided by Cytiva to Licensee under this Agreement.

6. Duty of Care of the Licensee

Licensee shall take suitable precautions to protect the Software from the unauthorized access by third parties.

7. Data protection

The following personal information is collected and transferred to Cytiva prior to or when using the Software: name of the software user, username, e-mail address, IP address and company name.

Cytiva uses this collected information for the purpose of (1) providing the Software and associated services in accordance with this Agreement, (2) billing, (3) identification and authentication of users, (4) improvement of the Software and associated services, and (5) contacting persons in connection with this Agreement and the use of the Software and associated services.
